Watched 2 Companions Die

Teen-Age Youth Survives 3 Terror-Filled Days on Raft

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A husky 14-year-old boy, who watched two men die as they drifted on a flimsy raft, was recovering in a hospital today after three days of tragedy and terror at sea.

Terry Mclelland, a blond high school athlete from Huntington Beach, Calif., was rescued Friday by a fishing boat 90 miles southwest of San Diego.

Transferred to a submarine, he arrived Friday night in San Diego. He was pronounced in fairly good condition at a hospital.

He told newsmen a rambling tale about three terrible days of shipwreck, thirst, delirium, death, hunger, heat and blinding glare of sun, sea and sky.

He and his companions—Russell Bradford, 48, of Huntington Beach, his mother's stepfather, and Alvin Hartman, 57, of nearby Santa Ana, Bradford's friend—set out for a month's fishing cruise off Mexico last Tuesday. Bradford was a plastering contractor, Hartman a hod carrier.

After setting out from Newport

Beach in their 36-foot boat, they encountered heavy swells. They tried riding at anchor that night.

"The sea anchor was pulling on the boat," the boy, mumbling and dazed from sedatives, told newsmen. "Two big swells picked up the boat and pulled the bottom out."

"Grandpa (Bradford) said to cut the raft loose..."

The three fishermen got aboard a six-by-three-foot raft of balsawood and cork. Its bottom consisted only of rope netting through which a few timbers were looped, and water sloshed through the bottom continually.

They tried to attract several passing vessels Wednesday, their first day on the raft. Although they waved rags and poles, no one stopped.

They had no food or water, only a few packs of cigarettes that Hartman grabbed before leaving the boat.

After waiting in vain for rescuers under a blinding hot sun, Hartman "went crazy on the second day," Terry said.

"He started falling in the water and the raft turned over," the boy added. "Grandpa got him back on the raft and gave him mouth-to-mouth respiration. But it didn't work."

After Hartman died, Bradford lashed the body to the raft.

Then, the boy continued, "My grandfather went crazy from seeing Al go crazy. He kept screaming and yelling and falling into the water."

"I kept telling him: 'Grandpa, don't die, don't leave me here alone.'"

He fell asleep, Terry said, and when he awoke, Bradford was dead. He lashed him to the raft with Hartman—and drifted on.

Early Friday morning, while fog hung low over the Pacific, the raft was spotted by seamen aboard the Ruth Marie, an ocean fishing boat.

Terry was taken aboard. The rescuers recovered Hartman's body but Bradford's body slipped

Ohio Bills Face Late Payment

Await Passage of Money Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio may be a little off schedule in paying bills and obligations this month.

State appropriations for 1959-61 expired at midnight, and it will be several days before the bill providing money for the July 1, 1961-to-June 30, 1963, period will be ready for the governor's signature.

The legislature went home Friday and won't be back until Wednesday. A conference committee of three senators and three representatives will try to iron out Senate-House differences in the $2 billion appropriations bill so both houses can okay it by the end of the coming week.

In the meantime, Welfare Director Mary Gorman said about 10,000 of the state's 88,500 old age pensioners will not receive their checks next Wednesday as scheduled. They live in the 13 counties at the top of the alphabetical list, from Adams through Clermont.

Mrs. Gorman said early July payments for dependent children, the blind and the disabled also will be delayed.

State Auditor James A. Rhodes, the man who mails out the state's checks, said it would be the first delayed mailing of pension checks since he became auditor.

And Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said he has been advised by the attorney general, Mark McElroy, that the state can make no payments without enactment of an appropriations bill.

One proposal, an immediate partial appropriation to run the state until the middle of this month, was offered Friday in the House by Rep. James A. Lantz, D-Fairfield, minority leader.

However, House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, rejected the attempt to introduce it.

Lawmakers themselves will have to wait for their checks, which usually come in around the first of the month. Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, said there were delays in approving six-month partial appropriations used back in 1947 and 1949, and that there was no

Mob Attacks With Stones, Clubs

1 Killed As French Fire On Algerians

ALGIERS (AP)—French forces in Algiers and nearby Blida opened fire today on Moslem mobs attacking them with stones and clubs. Police said one rioter was killed and scores hurt.

The Moslems took to the streets by the hundreds, obeying a strike call from the nationalist rebel FLN and savage clashes broke out with police and troops. Fifteen members of the antiriot forces were injured.

Shortly after noon, however, the government said the situation was in hand.

Police and soldiers first fired into the air to try to halt the Moslems, who advanced on them shouting rebel slogans and waving green and white rebel flags.

Then, as the rioters hurled stones and charged with clubs, the French opened fire.

The Moslems' rage was directed at French President Charles de Gaulle's proposal to partition the country if a negotiated settlement of the Algerian rebellion is not reached.

Bold young Moslems hoisted a rebel flag atop a building in a working-class district and, for a while, a mob blocked off a police station.

The high pitched "yu-yu-yu" cry of Moslem women shrilled in the quarter. For centuries, Moslem women have urged their men on to war with the high, weird call.

Swinging clubs, police rushed groups of Moslems in Algiers where defiant youths shouted the slogans of the rebellion against French rule.

Authorities reported that the port of city of Oran to the west, was the scene of a Moslem strike but there were no reports of violence.

Friday night Mohammed Yazid, spokesman for the rebel FLN, called from Tunis headquarters for a demonstration July 5 against proposed French partition of Algeria.

Presumably emotional elements among the Moslems did not want to wait and took to the streets early today in the steaming summer heat.

French President Charles de Gaulle, on a grass-roots tour of Lorraine, has told crowds that unless a suitable settlement of the six-year-old Algerian war could be reached, the French would divide the country between Moslems and the one million members of the European community.

Disarmament Parleys Fail

New Discussions Set In Moscow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two weeks of negotiations have failed to produce agreement between the United States and the Soviet Union setting up a general disarmament conference.

Both sides admitted this Friday as their Washington talks wound up. The negotiators did agree to begin a second round of discussions in Moscow July 17.

U.S. negotiators prepared for the Moscow talks with a sense of disappointment at the lack of progress. President Kennedy himself took a personal hand Friday in trying to further the discussions.

Kennedy invited the Soviet negotiator, Valerian A. Zorin, and Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov to the White House for a half-hour chat before Friday's windup.

Kennedy was reported to have stressed to Zorin the importance he attaches to getting an agreement to end the arms race.

The snail's pace of the discussions has added to a growing opinion among Kennedy advisers that no fruitful negotiations with the Russians on major cold war issues are in sight.

Instead, in the opinion of top Kennedy aides, the Russians are in a self-confident, no-negotiating mood based on a belief the tide is with them. The Russians, Kennedy aides say, have shown no signs of conciliation at the Geneva test ban or Laos conferences or in the Germany-Berlin issue. The Americans had hoped for

Achievement Awards Are Presented to 8

Presentation of awards was a feature of the fifth annual commencement exercises of the Hannah E. Mullins School of Practical Nursing Friday evening at the First Baptist Church.

The highest scholastic achievement award was presented to

Mrs. Betty Jane Smerchansky of North Jackson. Mrs. Smerchansky, who with the 19 other graduates began the one-year program last July, is the mother of two children. A widow, she is the daughter of Mrs. Lief Garver of Youngstown.

W.M. Morgan, Former Lisbon Druggist, Dies

LISBON — William McKinley Morgan, 75, of 375 E. Chestnut St., a retired druggist, died this morning at 5:10 in the Salem Central Clinic where he had been admitted Thursday.

He had been in failing health for the past several years.

Born Aug. 2, 1885, in Lisbon, he was a son of William C. and Anna Torrence Morgan. He lived his entire life in this vicinity.

He graduated from Lisbon High School and the University of Pittsburgh.

He opened his drug store on the square March 4, 1915, and was joined in the business by his son, William M. Morgan Jr. in 1946. He retired about a year ago.

Mr. Morgan was a life-long member of the First Christian Church and was a trustee at the time of his death. He was a charter member of the Lisbon Kiwanis Club, and a member of F & A. M. No. 65, Knight Templars and Knights of Pythias. He was one of the originators of the Lisbon Community Chest.

He married Sara Morris, Aug. 19, 1911, and they would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this year.

Besides his wife and his son, he leaves a sister, Mrs. C. C. Crisswell of Beaver Falls, Pa., a brother, Clyde T. Morgan of Alliance, and three grandchildren.

Services will be conducted Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home by Rev. William Spangler. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

The second place achievement award went to Miss Joan Francine Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo Joseph of Niles. These selections were made by the faculty members of the school.

Cited for having the greatest degree of nursing proficiency, as chosen by the professional nursing supervisors, were Miss Jean Caroline Meissner of Damascus, first, and Miss Alice June Best of Petersburg, second.

Miss Meissner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meissner of Damascus, and Miss Best's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Best of Petersburg.

Three Others Cited
Three other graduates won special mention for outstanding performance, as judged by supervisors and staff nurses at City Hospital. They were: Miss Mary Theresa Burligier of Newell, W.

Saudi Arabia Also Dispatches Force; U.N. Session Asked

KUWAIT (AP)—British marine commandoes aboard the 22,000-ton aircraft carrier Bulwark landed in Kuwait today and the government radio announced that Saudi Arabian troops were coming to the sheikdom's defense against a threatened invasion by Iraq.

Kuwait's Minister of State Bader Abdulla Mulla announced that the government had requested an emergency meeting of the United Nations Security Council "to investigate threats from Iraq likely to endanger the security and independence of Kuwait."

The Arab League Council will hold an extraordinary session

Tuesday at Saudi Arabia's request to consider Kuwait's request to join the ten nation league, it was announced in Cairo.

The British Foreign Office in London said the forces were moved into Kuwait at the "urgent and formal request" of the country's ruler, Sheikh Abdullah as-Salim as-Sabah and placed at his disposal.

"It is to afford him such assistance as he may consider necessary for the preservation of the independence of Kuwait in the face of recent developments in Iraq," the foreign office statement said.

Troops To Be Withdrawn After Emergency

"The secretary-general of the United Nations is being informed. Her majesty's government earnestly hopes that the necessity to make use of this force will not arise. It is intended that it should be withdrawn as soon as the ruler considers that the threat to the independence of Kuwait is over."

The size of the force was not immediately disclosed.

The frigate appeared in the mist in the Persian Gulf and a helicopter from the British consulate flew out to it.

Inside Kuwait rifle-bearing sheiks swarmed in from the desert ert by limousine vowing to help defend their oil-flowing oasis against armored Iraqi troops reported massing along the border.

The roads to the frontier were jammed with truckloads of armed Bedouin tribesmen who have taken up arms in the service of the sheik.

Correspondents estimated that more than 3,000 tribesmen passed through in one hour bound for the border. Newsmen were stopped by police 45 miles north of the capital and prevented from heading for the border region 50 miles farther north.

Border Closed First Time Since Crisis Arose

The border was closed Friday night for the first time since the crisis was touched off by Iraq's claim to Kuwait, which attained full independence from Britain only two weeks ago.

Hundreds of Bedouin tribal chiefs, flanked by bodyguards and retainers, rushed to Naif palace where Kuwait's ruler, Sheikh Abdullah as-Salim as-Sabah, has been conferring with advisors over the threat posed by Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

The city prepared for another giant demonstration today against Iraq's annexation move. Posters were readied showing Kassem getting a kick in the pants and a giant fist descending on his head.

Volunteers from the desert have been pouring into the city for two days pledged to fight if need be against Kassem's claim of sovereignty over Kuwait, richest oil prize in the Middle East.

More arrived by the hour, many seated in the rear of sleek, chauffeur-cared cars, their rifles between their knees. Some sat between bodyguards carrying revolvers in holsters slung knee-high from bandoliers.

"We are ready to meet any aggression," Assistant Secretary of State Talate Hussein told newsmen at a conference at security headquarters in the palace.

Bedouins Bolstering Kuwait's Tiny Army

Hussein said the Bedouins had been mobilized into a national guard to bolster Kuwait's tiny army and were being posted at the northern border following reports that Iraqi tanks were massing across the frontier.

Kuwait's army totals only 2,400 men trained and supplied by the British. The Iraqi army reportedly numbers about 70,000.

The secretary of state said John Richmond, British political agent in Kuwait, had given new assurances that Britain stood ready to send aid to its former protectorate if called upon.

Bank Bandit Gets $4,500 In Girard

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A gunman posing as a customer held up the Girard Federal Savings & Loan Association at nearby Girard Friday and escaped with an estimated $4,500 after locking six employees in a vault.

Vice President David Rees, who estimated the loss, said the robber entered the office shortly before 3 p. m. and waited inside until after the office had closed for the day.

Mrs. Mary L. Barber, a teller, said the man told her he wanted to see Rees about a loan and paced the floor nervously while the vice president talked to a salesman.

Rees, 37, said he invited the man into his office after he locked the front door behind the salesman at 3:05 p. m.

"When I sat down at my desk, he pulled a .22-caliber blue steel revolver out," Rees said. Then the gunman handed the vice president a paper bag with an order to "fill it up," Rees said.

Rees took the money from three tellers' windows and the gunman ordered the employees into the vault, locked the grilled gate and threw the key to it on the floor. Employees used a metal binder to reach the keys and freed themselves.

The United Arab Republic's minister of state, Abdel Kadei Hatem, said in Cairo reports indicated "some circles in Baghdad" were considering the possibility of armed intervention in Kuwait and that Iraqi troops had been ordered to the Kuwait frontier.

Hatem appealed to the Iraqi people not to endanger the fate of the Arab world by acts springing from personal glory or regional ambition that would invite "imperialist intervention."

The U.S. State Department said Iraq had informed Washington Wednesday it would use only peaceful means in its attempt to take over Kuwait. A spokesman said State Department sources were incorrect in reporting early Friday that Washington had informed London that an attack on Kuwait was imminent.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, said there are 430 U.S. citizens in Kuwait, including six consular officials.

Confident Living

By Dr. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

What to Do About Your Disadvantages

Why do some people do so much more with life than others? Some who fail are always explaining, while people who go places just go on and do things. "You see, I never had the advantages he had." Haven't you heard someone say that, referring to something another person had achieved? Or someone up against tough competition may tell you, "My lack of ability or education naturally puts me at a hopeless disadvantage. I'm licked before I start."

Of course a remark like that arouses sympathy, for we know that the disappointment and frustration back of it is no fun. But I am personally wary of accepting it as a true explanation why the person doing the complaining hasn't accomplished things. I have noticed that where one man gives up without a try, telling himself the obstacles are insurmountable, another in precisely the same circumstances goes right ahead regardless of obstacles!

TAKE THE EXAMPLE OF a man with whom I recently had some correspondence. So many people complain of educational disadvantages. Well, this man grew up in the open spaces of the Southwest back before the turn of the century. He had to work and reached manhood without ever having had the opportunity to go to school. Yet at 23 he passed the State examination for a teacher's certificate, taught school for two years, then gained admission to the University of Texas.

There he attained such high scholarship standing that on his graduation the Board of Regents elected him to a fellowship. He went on to a distinguished career in the legal profession and became a judge. Today, an active man in his eighties, the Judge is a popular and influential figure in the great Southwestern city where he lives.

HOW COULD a man develop a career of this character without ever having been to school? It's amazing to say the least. Here is his explanation. "I had a girl cousin who was a year or two older than I. Her father was well fixed. She went through all the grades and later graduated from college. When she finished a text book she sent it to me, and I studied those books at night while I was working on the farm and also when I was out herding sheep. The university gave credit for all subjects covered by my teacher's certificate. There were subjects not covered by it, though. On those I had to take an entrance examination."

Of course the real question is—where does a man get the drive to be his own teacher as well as student?

The Judge gives the source of his motivation. "Ever since I was converted and joined the Church when I was twelve years old, I have tried to live by Romans 8:28, which tells us that 'All things work together for good to them that love God.' This has ever since been my guide and rule."

"For one entire year in my teens I was a sheepherder in the wilderness of west Texas. I seldom saw another person, maybe only once a week. I lived in a tent near the brush pen in which we kept the sheep at night—3,000 head of them. So you can see I was with the sheep both day and night."

"I READ THE BIBLE through at that time and have tried to dedicate my life to the work of God. During that period I also read other books, mostly classics. From the Bible and these books I got a great inspiration to try to make something of my life."

I tell this amazing story for two reasons (1) to show that a person can overcome all obstacles if he really wants to do so and if he believes that he can. It is a fact that you can if you think you can. And (2) I have cited the experience of this judge to emphasize that in religious faith there is energy, motivation, faith in yourself and the releasing of powers you didn't know you had.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Two Ways to Beat Polio

Disagreement between doctors about the Salk and Sabin methods of fighting polio is none of the public's concern. The doctors' difference of professional opinion erupted when American Medical Association's house of delegates unanimously endorsed the Sabin vaccine.

Dr. Jonas A. Salk took exception to some of the claims made for the vaccine developed by his associate, Dr. Albert B. Sabin, and the squabble was on. It is a professional matter. The public respects both Drs. Salk and Sabin for their work. It believes both are sincere and it suspects both are right.

That is to say, both of the methods they have developed can immunize human beings against polio. It is possible that still other methods may come along to do the same thing. And it is more probable than ever that polio will be routed — that it will become as rare as smallpox became when vaccination became almost universal.

The public's only interest is to get rid of the disease. It is grateful to Dr. Salk for his work in the break-through that occurred six years ago. It is grateful to Dr. Sabin for his work in developing what promises to be a still more effectual method of immunization. The Sabin vaccine can be taken by mouth. It requires no use of a hypodermic needle. No professional skill is required to administer it. Persons treated with Sabin vaccine not only acquire immunity but cannot become passive carriers of polio, capable of infecting others, one weakness charged against Salk vaccine.

Widespread use of Salk vaccine has saved lives and averted the crippling of bodies. Its benefits will be felt for years to come. Dr. Salk believes, and many other doctors will agree with him, that his vaccine will continue to be the standby in the fight against polio even after the Sabin vaccine becomes universally available late this year or early next year.

The public benefit will be doubled, perhaps more than doubled, because Sabin vaccine is so easy to administer and promises to be even more effectual in mass usage than Salk vaccine. When both vaccines are easily available, anyone so inclined could take both and achieve dual immunity, so to speak.

Doctors may disagree professionally, but the public can agree. It has everything to gain. A few years ago it had no protection against polio at all. Now it has two paths to immunity.

The Frame That Fits Eichmann

During the trial of Adolf Eichmann, the prosecution and defense have fitted him into many frames of reference.

He has been held up to inspection as a military puppet. But he was not one of Hitler's goose-steppers. He was never a soldier.

He has been exhibited as a sadist. But that didn't seem plausible, either. He was cruel and certainly he was heartless. But he was not systematically interested in causing human suffering.

Sometimes he has been depicted as an efficiency expert in travel arrangements for millions of people taking their last journey on earth. That, too, leaves something to be desired. Efficiency in evil is not efficiency.

It is ridiculous, of course, for the man to claim he was really a friend of the Jews he was helping to destroy. If he had been their friend he would have blown his brains out.

Eichmann was more than a conscientious functionary but not quite a key figure. The man had a special role in the horrors and excesses of the Nazi era.

He was the Hitlerian prototype of the "organization man" that has emerged in the United States as a definable social and economic phenomenon—the fellow who obeys orders and keep his mouth shut.

He was the man so anxious to stand in with the top men of the Hitler organization that he submerged himself in their evil will. He did not ask whether it was evil. He sought only the privilege of being part of it. He knocked himself out to win a place on the team—to be one of the big men in National Socialism.

His greatest crime may not have been the one he will be convicted of in Israel but a crime he must answer for in the collective conscience of his contemporaries: He sold his soul.

Traffic Congestion

Discourteous truck drivers have got into the bad habit of double parking and blocking traffic to the extent that it's time that the police did something about.

Drivers making shipments from out of town seem to be the principal offenders. Local truckers usually see to it that their vehicles are not blocking downtown streets, which are narrow enough as it is.

If truckers and some motorists can't read "No Parking" signs, perhaps the police can read them the wording of a court summons.

The world would be improved so much if there was more commendation and less criticism, more friendliness and less indifference, more sincerity and less pretense.

A woman writer says anniversary gifts insure domestic peace. If you're looking to the future, men, don't forget the present.

Breathe through your nose is good advice, helping you to keep your mouth shut.

Waste of time is the most extravagant and costly of all expenses.

the U.S. going all out to attract tourists?" —B.B.G.

Dick Nixon is mentioned as a possible big league baseball czar, replacing Ford Frick. Nixon has had eight years experience in a field where the baseball is common. He has done plenty of pitching and catching, and nearly stole home in the crucial one against the Democratic All Stars.

It wouldn't surprise us if Fidel Castro declared war on Eleanor Roosevelt.

This summer is seeing something almost unprecedented in thievery, the theft of yachts. Owners going to club to board vessels have found them missing and later abandoned at ports far away. Crime is spreading so much that there apparently isn't elbow room for all the lawlessness on land alone.

"Fishing?" we asked a big league baseball manager. "No, just waiting for a telegram or dismissal," he replied.

A few years ago the "motel" was just a row of tourist cabins in the sticks. But it has become a luxury institution and is now entering the big cities. New York has a new eight story one with underground parking space, elevators, bathing pools, sport's roof, patio, etc. The day when you could barge into such a place in shirtsleeves and old pants is over. Tourists now have to know what to wear and carry tuxedo.

Song for New York in school scandal:

School days, school days,

Good old "crooked pool" days:

Builders and planners with methods slick

Cutting the corners with mortar and brick.

In New York scandal it is charged that schools a half century old are in better shape than ones built in last few years. That goes for plenty of housing, factories and other construction, too. Pride of workmanship is a vanishing Americanism. Ask any wrecking company which tears down old buildings about the sturdy, honest construction jobs of yesterday.

Perilous Passage

Pathetic City of New York

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK — When Harry Truman asked one of his seminar strollers on a morning walk in New York, "Why don't you clean up your own back yard?" He may have referred to the repulsive aspects of homosexuality on Lexington, Third and Second Avenues in the evenings and in Washington Square and Greenwich Village at large.

It does no good for the pot and the kettle to bandy filth, but I have never seen in any American city a condition like that which affronted my hardened gaze on my return from a sojourn of six months beyond the Hudson. This is a terrible state of affairs and I now suspect that homosexual activity was what the papers and the agencies had in mind in their light-some, almost frivolous, discussion of the bongo parties and singing and the objections of the rent-paying neighbors and the police to all that down at the foot of Fifth Avenue.

ON THE OTHER HAND, in my travels about the South I have seen a really startling and heartening improvement in the scene that meets the eye and a drastic change for the better in the outward condition of the negroes as well as of the socially and financially lesser whites.

I did not go into the mill towns, which are represented as a mere transference to the southern tier of the squalid poverty and dejection of the swayed textile towns of New England of 40 and 50 years ago. However, I have old friends in some of those important new mills on the stalk of the southern economy and society and they assure me, on my trust in them, that the South is not the laggard and rather sullen South of the days of the second Ku Klux.

In Jackson, Miss., in Shreveport and Baton Rouge, La., and in Charleston, S.C., the South is washed and pressed and the schools are incomparably better than those of the pathetic city of New York where luckless children of baffled young parents are forced by law into ominous associations in appalling material conditions.

Recently there was a noisy disclosure of graft in the building and repair of schools and of dilapidation fraught with rats, sewage and many threatening cultures of disease in more than 400 such schools. These schools are evil to the naked eye and it must follow that the spiritual effect of crowding under such conditions is tragic to the children and the parents who naturally are young men and women just groping their way in a clumsy, incoherent metropolis.

I know very little of the truth of the career of William O'Dwyer as mayor, but he is certainly by far the most intelligent and intellectual mayor who has served the city since the First War. And he said, briefly, in an all-too-sketchy interview in the New Yorker a few years ago, that the city was simply ungovernable under the political apparatus provided by law.

But every effort to protect these poor people from the failure of a political method and the impositions put on them by political superstitions of "democracy" is accompanied by the certainty of heartless graft and resultant degradation and suffering. Southern cities would be aghast at the average condition, material, social and moral, of the public school in New York.

JACKSON, MISS., has changed and so has much of the outlying state in an energetic burst of development that compares with the extension of highways in the northern systems. But I remember in observing all this that the countryside I had learned to know was almost sad in a sort of resignation to economic inferiority. Allen C. Thompson, the mayor of Jackson, a handsome young fellow with graying hair, has learned to apply the "public relations" magic of our airlines and of the Miami Beach of 25 years ago to the reputation of a spirited, generally excellent capital city, so against the abusive campaign of northern radio-teevee and magazine reporters and photographers. He has instilled in some journalists wandering that way a friendly desire to depict Jackson as she is and is trying to be.

Judd Arnett, of the Detroit Free Press, formerly managing editor of the Savannah News, went by just before I arrived in Jackson and wrote a fine, gentle article in his humane, literary idiom which made me aware of the change before I could observe it myself. The local journalism is intelligent and certainly does not toady to the New York spirit, a fault often found in reporters who want to attach themselves to New York papers and magazines.

And though I have walked the streets of many southern cities in recent years, I have nowhere seen the almost frightening defiance of decency I have recently seen in New York. This is something new and thus far it is local to New York and a reminder of Berlin in the days before Hitler, and of London much of the last 20 years.

When men paint their lips and primp their hair and blink false eyelashes on the streets of a metropolis it behooves that metropolis, as Harry Truman said, to look to its own back yard, not to send rioters into decent communities.

Peace Corps Threat

By JULES LOH

Outgrowth Of State-Church Controversy

NEW YORK (AP)—The church-state controversy, recurring vexation of the New Frontier, now is threatening to plague President Kennedy's Peace Corps program. The issue is to what extent the federal government may make use of established American missionary groups overseas to carry out the humanitarian objectives of the corps.

R. Sargent Shriver, director of the corps, has said the new program should supplement, not supplant, existing governmental and private aid efforts. In fact, of the $40-million budget which the corps has submitted to Congress for approval, $26 million would be spent through universities and voluntary agencies.

But Shriver has made it clear the government should see to it "that no activities inconsistent with the Peace Corps were carried on, such as religious proselytizing or propagandizing."

Still, some staunch church-state separatists are skeptical that groups which have been working abroad for both religious and humanitarian purposes could put aside their religious motives in order to use government funds and Peace Corpsmen in their projects.

Director Shriver has said it would be in the interest of both economy and efficiency to use private agencies already trained in welfare work abroad because it will cost the government about $9,000 a year to train, equip and support each new Peace Corpsman.

The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and the American Jewish Congress, to name two groups, have expressed opposition to using overseas church agencies.

The Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) and the Roman Catholic Church both have come out solidly in favor of it.

The American Baptist Convention, while encouraging its members to volunteer for the corps, has urged strict caution to see that "no project sponsored by the Peace Corps shall further any religious cause."

The Rev. Dr. Robert E. Van Deusen, representing the National Lutheran Council at a Senate committee hearing on a bill to make the Peace Corps a permanent government activity, said his church had not yet decided whether it would enter cooperative projects with the corps but that he personally doubted it.

Director Shriver has said the corps would not contract with a religious group which confines its recruiting to members of its own denomination.

A spokesman for the National Catholic Welfare Conference, F. Robert Melina, said his church for one would be willing to accept non-Catholic Peace Corps volunteers on its overseas welfare projects.

The NCWC, which coordinates American Catholic enterprises, has even established a Peace Corps desk at its Washington headquarters to handle requests of Catholic individuals and agencies who want to participate.

As to the constitutionality of such participation, the Catholic magazine "America" felt the whole discussion unwarranted.

World Of No Work

By JOEL SELDIN

In the new world being created by science, work will be virtually non-existent, property will be relatively unimportant and thrift will be meaningless. The American social order will have to be altered radically to suit the new conditions.

These are the conclusions in "Consumers of Abundance," the latest in a series of studies of the economic order for the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, established by the Fund for the Republic. It was written by Gerard Piel, editor and publisher of "Scientific American."

Mr. Piel discusses the "subversion of work" by technology and automation, and the emergence of an economy in which "the less the people work, the more their product grows." But he does not suggest that Americans of the future will not have to earn a living, though they may be at it fewer hours and retire younger.

By "work," he means "the extraction of raw materials and making of consumable goods from them." Those engaged in distribution, services and government do not, by this definition, "work."

These "non-productive workers" were 30 per cent of the work force in 1900. Today, they are 60 per cent, Mr. Piel reported, and growing rapidly as the number of production workers declines toward extinction. Mr. Piel applauded the development.

"Any hard work that a machine can do is better done by a machine," he said.

But even in non-productive jobs, Mr. Piel found, the "evidence that full employment is no longer an attainable objective seems to be growing."

Sharp cuts in the work week could take up some of the slack, he said, but noted: "No reasonably predictable rate of growth in the productive sectors of the economy seems equal to overtaking the current rate of technological displacement."

What is to become, Mr. Piel asks, of "the instinct for work-manship, the need to feel needed, the will to achieve?" He predicted a "liberation of people from tasks unworthy of human capacity" and an enlargement of teaching and learning, fundamental scientific investigations, the performing arts and the graphic arts, letters, the crafts, politics and social service.

Of the fear that these will have to be financed by the public payroll, Mr. Piel observed that they are now, though inadequately, and that along with rapid transit, conservation, public works, "the best kind of medicine" and museums, they "have never been or can no longer be conducted at a profit."

Raises Overpass Questions

At City Council's special meeting June 27 it was revealed that the cost to the city of the W. State St. overpass could exceed $65,000 by an unknown sum.

Any relocation of utilities, improvements, etc. incurred outside the limitations of the right-of-way would be borne by the city at 100 per cent of the cost. Therefore, at this time it is actually unknown as to the complete cost to the city of this much-needed project. This was not completely cleared up at the meeting with the engineers June 28.

When computing the cost of this project I think one item has been completely overlooked. The city scales could no longer be used to weigh trucks using our city streets. At one time the Mayor was insistent that the revenue engendered from the truck weight ordinance would negate the need for a City Income Tax. This source of revenue to the city's General Fund would be denied. The City owns no acceptable property for re-locating these scales to continue enforcement of this ordinance and to produce any revenue therefrom. Therefore, one must consider this loss as part of the over-all cost of the overpass. The revenue derived from this source since November, 1960, amounts to $8,094.40 up to June 1, 1961.

Why is only one company estimating engineering costs? Why weren't more companies invited to present figures for this service?

Surely more than one company deals in this type of work. The taxpayers should be given the advantage of any savings in a project of this magnitude. The possibility that an acceptable company might submit a lower bid exists and this saving could be passed on to the taxpayers.

It will be interesting to receive the final city cost figures for the overpass. It will may be that they will exceed the cost involved in building and manning a fire department sub-station in the west end of town as recommended in the Michael Baker Comprehensive Plan. The estimated cost of this construction was $45,000 which is what the engineering services alone will cost for the overpass.

The revenue from the truck weight ordinance, if adequately enforced, will more than provide funds for manning this station. This recommended facility, along with others in a comprehensive plan for which the taxpayers paid $12,000, have not been given proper consideration.

Fire Destroys Barn North Of Lisbon

LISBON — A large two-story barn located north of Lisbon on the old Brinker farm, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon.

Spontaneous combustion may have started the blaze which engulfed the structure, but neither Lisbon volunteer firemen nor the owners were able to determine for certain whether that was the cause.

The 74-acre farm is owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter McDevitt and is situated on the Adams road.

Lisbon firemen fought the blaze from 1 to 4:30 p.m., using an estimated 6,000 gallons of water to save several nearby buildings and the house. The Center Township truck and the Civil Defense tanker were also used by the firemen.

The McDevitts were unable to estimate the loss, but the barn and contents were insured. Mrs. McDevitt said there was no livestock in the barn, but hay, grain and straw and some farm machinery were lost.

The farm formerly was owned by Mrs. McDevitt's father, the late Bert Wallace. It has been farmed each year until this year. McDevitt is a strip mine shovel operator.

UAW, Car Makers To Get Down To Hard Bargaining

DETROIT (AP) — With initial scatter-gun cannonading over the United Auto Workers and the big three automakers will begin taking dead-aim next week in 1961 contract bargaining.

The UAW, opening on successive days at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, indicated its main target will be job security for members now working and new jobs for the unemployed.

The automakers emphasized their aim would center on anything that might add to inflation. Ford and GM specifically called for non-inflationary settlements.

And it was on these company statements that the first verbal firing occurred.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther, pointing out that the cost of living index had not advanced in recent weeks, told GM inflation is "overexaggerated."

Ken Bannert, the union's Ford department director, angrily told Ford Friday the UAW "is sick and tired of being on the receiving end of Ford Motor Company's slurs that, in negotiations, the company alone is worried about inflation."

He said the company's call for a non-inflationary contract carried the implication the UAW was trying to force an inflationary one and asserted: "There is absolutely nothing inflationary about the proposals we intend putting before the Ford Motor Co. Absolutely nothing!"

Reuther goes to American Motors Corp. Thursday to open bargaining there. At the same time, union and company teams will return to holiday-interrupted negotiations at GM, Ford and Chrysler.

Three-year pacts with the big three expire Aug. 31 and a week later at American Motors.

Reuther told Chrysler Friday it can anticipate no concessions despite the fact it alone, among the big three, has been operating at a loss this year.

2 Boys Hospitalized After Farm Mishaps

Two area boys are in fairly good condition today in Salem City Hospital with injuries suffered when they fell from loaded hay wagons in separate mishaps Friday.

Bruce Chamberlain, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Chamberlain of New Waterford, is reported to have fallen from a wagon while working at the Don Rupert farm. He was admitted to the hospital at 3:55 p.m. with possible fractured ribs and back injury.

James Roberts, 7½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts of RD 2, Columbiana, received a possible fracture of the right leg in a similar fall at his home. He was admitted to the hospital at 10 p.m.

J. PAUL WILMS, presently a member and a former president on the Board of Education, has filed his petitions for re-election. Wilms has been on the Board since 1958. He is the operator of the Gwenn-Gary Nursery on Route 7.

Merle Esterly of Fairfield Ave. Ext. is the second candidate to file his petitions. Mr. Esterly is employed by the State Highway Department.

Expiring terms are those of Mr. Wilms and Miss Estelle Esterly and W. L. Lehman. The positions will be filled at the Nov. 7 election.

Priscilla Circle of the Christian Church will hold a coverdsh picnic at Firestone Park Pavilion 1 Thursday at 6:30 for members and their families.

Members are asked to bring a coverdsh and table service. Rolls and butter are to be furnished by the hostesses, Anna Gidley and Mertie Mays.

Man Sought In Slaying of Wife Gives Up

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Ronald Douglas Curry, sought since June 16 in the fatal shooting of his estranged wife in Zanesville, surrendered here early today to Ohio Highway patrolmen.

Curry's 3-year-old son, Jeffery, whom authorities said he took with him following the shooting, was with Curry and was reported not to have been harmed.

A Columbus attorney, Alex Dombey, contacted Col. S. B. Radcliffe, superintendent of the highway patrol, Friday night and said his client, Curry, was out of the state but wanted to return and give himself up. Radcliffe made arrangements for the 27-year-old Curry to be met at Portsmouth and the fugitive is being held in the Portsmouth Jail.

The Newark man is wanted in the slaying of 25-year-old Dorothy Curry.

Officials said Curry fired two .38 caliber revolver shot into the head of his estranged wife following an argument in his mother-in-law's home.

The mother-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Nabb, about 55, said she grabbed two other Curry children, Pamela, 5, and Sandra, 16 months, and fled out of the house when the seemingly berserk husband threatened to kill them all.

Mrs. Curry and her son, Jeffery, were cut off from escape by the gun-waving husband.

After shooting the woman, police said Curry grabbed Jeffery and fled.

Patrolmen said the youngster is now with relatives.

In Columbus, Dombey said he was contacted Friday night by Curry's brother, James, of Mount Vernon. James said he was with his brother and was calling from West Virginia. James asked the attorney to contact Radcliffe.

Dombey said he did not know either of the two men but said James mentioned that a railroad man with whom he worked recommended Dombey to him.

The attorney said investigators from his office are planning to meet with James today.

Akron Bank Robber Gets Prison Term

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Richard Charles Ruip, 24, Akron, Ohio, drew a 15-year prison term Thursday for bank robbery, while extra precautions were taken to avoid an escape.

He had pleaded guilty June 8 to a charge of robbing the Waynedale Branch of Peoples Trust & Savings Co. of $5,200 here April 17 while at large from his second jailbreak in Canton, Ohio. He was arrested near Canton after a 100-mile-an-hour chase May 9, suffering minor bullet wounds in the capture.

Charles R. Lemaster, assistant U.S. district attorney, said Ruip was taken on a different route through downtown Fort Wayne and whisked in through a rear door of the federal building.

Lemaster also reported a "complete shakedown" of the courtroom to make sure no one had smuggled in any escape tools or weapons. He said authorities had received a tip that Ruip would try another jailbreak.

FIRE IS EXTINGUISHED

Firemen were called out at 3:26 a.m. today to extinguish a fire in the Jarvis Apartments, 396 E. State St.

Fire Chief Clarence Wright said the fire was caused when Tony Metts of 871 Granite St. fell asleep while smoking in bed in one of the apartments. Major damage was confined to the bed, with water and smoke causing slight damage to the apartment, the chief reported.

COLUMBIANA PARATROOP — Army Pvt. Carl R. Dodson, 25, whose wife, Jane, lives at 129 N. West St., Columbiana, recently was graduated from the 101st Airborne Division Jump School at Fort Campbell, Ky. Dodson received his paratrooper wings after completing three weeks of intensive ground and aerial training which included five parachute jumps.

He entered the Army last December. Dodson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dodson of Leetonia, attended Columbiana Village High School and was employed by Columbiana Pump before entering the Army.

City Playground Registration Up For First Week

The Salem Summer Playground program completed the first week of an eight-week program Friday, with registrations totaling 823, an increase of 65 over last year.

First week registrations at each playground, with 1960 figures in parenthesis, are as follows:

Buckeye playground 100 (121); Centennial playground 144 (143); Fourth Street playground 145 (188); McKinley playground 106 (56); Prospect playground 169 (140); Reilly playground 159 (110). The playgrounds are open Monday through Friday each week from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m. Any child over five years of age interested in attending the playgrounds can register during these hours.

Average daily attendance at the playgrounds for the first week was 425, compared to 355 in 1960. C. F. Tomlinson, superintendent of Parks and Recreation, reported.

Assumes New Duties

John Ursu

Appointed earlier this week, John Ursu of 517 W. 8th St. took over his new duties today as engineer in charge of the Lisbon field office for the State Highway Department.

Mr. Ursu, 31, who has been working for the state for several years, succeeds George Gonzales of Lisbon, the state resident engineer in Columbiana County who retired last week. Mr. Ursu is a graduate of Salem High School and Case Institute of Technology, where he received his degree in civil engineering.

Others who spoke were Harold Brittain, local Chamber of Commerce president; his father, C.D. Brittain, director of the W. S. George Co. and supervisor of repair and cleaning at the plant following the leasing, and Mayor Robert Harding, who expressed the official welcome to the Sebring group.

About 50 persons attended, including representatives of civic and fraternal organizations and industry. The banquet was sponsored by the Moose Club.

First ware production at the plant is scheduled for next week. Full-scale operation is expected by the end of summer.

Nurses

Va., for obstetric nursing; Miss Beverly Smith of 780 W. Euclid St., for pediatric nursing; and Mrs. Erla Mae Emelo of 410 S. Union Ave., for recovery room nursing.

Mrs. Hazel Elner of West Point was given recognition for special devotion to nursing.

The awards were made by Mrs. E. R. Durand, director of the school.

C. J. Mosher Jr., administrator of Salem City Hospital Association, presented the diplomas and pins to these graduates in addition to the other members of the class who are: Carol Lee Bunfill of Wellsville, Kathleen Elizabeth Cosma of 497 E. Perry St., Barbara Jane Dunn of Alliance, Carol Ann Grimm of 207 N. Rose Ave., Marlene Ruth Knoll of 794 E. 5th St., Ruth Ann Lovas of East Liverpool, Dolores Jean Rallo of Alliance, Ruthanne Katherine Scullion of 712 W. State St., Sara Ann Smith of Alliance, Patsy Lee Van Horn of Columbiana, Rita Margaret Wilhelm of New Waterford and Beverly Ann Yates of 735 Prospect St.

The welcome to the graduate practical nurses was given by Mrs. Francis McNicol, director of nursing service at City Hospital. Rev. Thomas Hammerton, pastor of the East Palestine Methodist Church, was the principal speaker.

New Class Capped

Capping ceremonies for the February (1962) Class was held for the following members: Bonnie Bedard of Lakewood, Kathleen Bush of Alliance, Mary Helen Clapper of Paris, Linda Clark of New Waterford, Mary Crouse of Columbiana, Annette Emery of Warren, Kay Fry of Minerva, Kathleen Hupp of New Middle-town, Sandra Hupp of New Milford, Maxine Kushner of Poland, Lenora Robinson of Alliance, Jacquelyn Siler of Columbiana, Barbara Viets of Lisbon and Karen Young of Alliance.

Atty. John O. Beck, chairman of the advisory committee, presided at the service. The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. R. J. Hunter, with Miss Carol Murphy providing the processional and recessional music.

A reception followed in Fellowship Hall.

Miss Monroe Doing Well After Operation

NEW YORK (AP)—Screen star Marilyn Monroe was reported doing nicely Friday after her gall bladder operation.

The 34-year-old blonde was taken to Polyclinic Hospital Wednesday suffering abdominal pains. Her discomfort was traced to gallstones, but during a two-hour operation Thursday the gall bladder was removed.

Lisbon Church Scene of Wandle-Smith Nuptials

The chapel in the First Presbyterian Church of Lisbon was the setting for the candlelight wedding of Miss Jeannie Wandle and Dean Smith Friday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schmidt of W. Maple St. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith of Lisbon RD 3, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Paul T. Gerrard officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Custom of open church was observed.

Twin vases of summer flowers graced the altar which was banked with palms and ferns. Two seven-branch candelabra lighted the chancel.

John Snyder was the soloist and sang "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Mrs. Theodore Greener at the organ.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, the fitted bodice featuring long pointed sleeves and a scalloped neckline enhanced with pearl and sequin trim. Tiers of alternating nylon and lace ruffles formed front and back panels of the skirt with over-drape of lace.

An orange blossom wreath held her four-tier veil of silk illusion edged in lace. White carnations and stephanotis tied with white satin streamers formed the crescent bouquet she carried. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The maid of honor was Miss Betty Wandle, sister of the bride. She was attired in a street-length dress of silk organza in pink with fitted bodice, scoop neckline and short sleeves. The overlay of the bouffant skirt was caught up at the bottom to form roses of self material. A matching picture hat completed the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations with cascading satin streamers.

Misses Charlotte Childs and Charlene McKarns, the bridesmaids, were dressed identically to the maid of honor, except that their dresses were yellow and green. Their crescent bouquets were of pink carnations with satin streamers matching their gowns.

Keith Smith served his brother as best man, and Ronald Reeder and Dennis Deem were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schmidt wore a beige lace dress with white accessories while the bridegroom's mother chose a brown and white print nylon dress with white accessories. Each corsages of pink roses. Mrs. Lula Barnes, grandmother of the bridegroom, was remembered with a corsage of white carnations.

About 200 guests greeted the newlyweds at the reception in the church social room. The bride's table laid in white silk cloth was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The attendant's bouquets accented the table decorations.

Serving were Mrs. Ronald Crawford, the bride's sister; Mrs. James McLaughlin of Columbiana, the bridegroom's sister; Mrs. Dennis Deem and Miss Shirley Swearingen.

Mrs. Keith Smith, sister-in-law of the bride groom, registered guests from East Liverpool, Salem, Wellsville, Canton, Dolphin, Winona, Dover, Danville, Negley, Leetonia, Salineville, Hanoverton, Columbiana, Rogers, Lisbon and Strabane, Pa.

Mrs. Smith is a 1961 graduate of Lisbon High School. Her husband attended Beaver Local School and is employed at the Thomas Works of the H. K. Porter Co. here.

Following a honeymoon at Geneva-on-the-Lake, the couple will reside in Elkton where they have furnished a home. For traveling the bride wore a brown dress with white trim and white accessories and flowers from her bridal bouquet.

Members of the wedding party were feted Thursday night at the bridegroom's home following rehearsal at the church. The attendants were remembered with gifts at the rehearsal party.

In The Service

Among the 115 recent graduates of the enlisted basic submarine class at the New London Naval Submarine Base in Groton, Conn., was Richard J. Davidson, electrician's mate fireman apprentice. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davidson of RD 1, Negley.

Airman Apprentice Herbert R. Nesselbottle, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nesselbottle of RD 2, Columbiana, is serving in the Navy at the North Island Naval Air Station in San Diego, Calif.

James J. Lydon, son of Mrs. Marie Hayes of Leetonia, is among the 600 cadets of the class of 1964 of the Air Force Academy to visit Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Thursday through July 11.

The purpose of the cadets' visit is to receive briefings on the mission of the Air Force Systems Command's Aeronautical Systems Division.

The Social Notebook

A "THROW-OUT" tournament was featured when the Women's Association of the Sebring Golf Club held ladies day Thursday.

Miss Joanne Brotherton Bride of Charles Hinga

The wedding of Miss Joanne Hazel Brotherton and Charles Hinga Friday evening was the first to be held in the newly-built First Church of the Nazarene in Sebring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Okley Brotherton of RD 1, Beloit. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hinga of Alliance are the bridegroom's parents.

Rev. James Rogers performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Edward French of Sebring sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the organist, William Clark of Sebring.

For her wedding, Miss Brotherton chose a street-length dress of white dotted nylon over satin, fashioned with a scoop neckline, with a satin insert and satin rose at the waist. A headdress of nylon petals, trimmed with pearls, held her fingertip veil. Red and white carnations topped the white Bible which she carried. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Charlmers Clark of RD 1, Beloit was her matron of honor. A pink carnation corsage complemented her light blue street-length dress.

Charlmers Clark of RD 1, Beloit was best man, and Robert Tuel of Sebring was the usher.

The mothers of the couple wore blue dresses with pink accessories and corsages of pink carnations.

One hundred guests from Phoenix, Ariz., Canton, Mass., Sebring and Alliance attended the reception at the home of the bride's uncle, Harold Brotherton of RD 1, Beloit.

A three-tiered cake centered the bride's table. Mrs. Foster French, Mrs. Dayton Brotherton and Mrs. Harold Brotherton, aunts of the bride, served.

Mrs. Hinga is a 1961 graduate of West Branch High School. Her husband graduated from Alliance High School in 1960, and is employed by the Gem Clay Forming Co. in Sebring.

Indians Open Road Trip With 10-2 Conquest Of Red Sox

Win Gives Tribe 17-16 June Mark

Errors In Ninth Spoil Bell Shutout; Held Gets 4 Singles in 13-Hit Attack

BOSTON (AP) — Cleveland closed out the month of June on a winning note, just as it started. But what happened in between is best spoken of softly.

The Indians won their first eight games in June, yet ended up with a 17-16 record, just getting over the .500 mark with Friday night's 10-2 triumph over Boston.

The triumph was encouraging for several reasons:

Bell Tosses Six Hitter

Gary Bell (5-8) tossed a six-hitter for his first victory since June 6 and his first complete game since May 28. He walked four and struck out eight.

The Indians broke a five-game spell without a homer when Mike de la Hoz blasted a three-run shot into Fenway Park's left field screen. It also marked the first time the opposition failed to hit a homer in 14 games.

Cleveland whacked 13 hits, with slumping Vic Power getting three of them and Woodie Held collecting four singles in four trips.

de la Hoz and Held each drove in three runs and Power knocked in a pair.

The Indians opened the scoring in the third inning off starter Billy Muffett (2-8). Held singled to center. Then Chuck Schilling lost de la Hoz' pop up behind second base and it fell for a double, putting runners on second and third. Jim Piersall walked to load the bases and the run crossed on a wild pitch.

In the fourth frame, Cleveland poured across five runs on five hits—all with two out. Bubba Phillips, Power and Held singled for one run. Bell blooped a single to center, scoring another run. Then de la Hoz smacked his home run, the second round-tripper of the season for the young Cuban.

Two more runs crossed in the fifth on a walk to Willie Kirkland and singles by Phillips, Power and Held. Cleveland ended its scoring with a pair in the seventh. John Romano walked and moved up a base on Kirkland's single. Power doubled down the left field line, scoring Romano and sending Kirkland to third. Held's infield hit produced the 10th run.

Box Score on Miscues
The Red Sox spoiled Bell's shutout bid with a pair of unearned runs in the ninth frame, when de la Hoz committed two errors on a single play.

Boston had runners on first and second and one out when Don Buddin hit a grounder to Held at short. Woodie threw to de la Hoz for the start of what appeared to be a game-ending double play. But de la Hoz failed to touch the second base bag, then threw wildly on his relay to first and a run scored.

Barry Latman (6-0) makes his first start of the season for Cleveland today against Galen Cisco (1-1), the former Ohio State University football halfback.

Cleveland 001 520 200—10 13 2
Boston 000 000 002—2 6 0

Bell and Romano Muffett, Hillman (5), Wood (6) and Pagliaroni. W—Bell (5-8). L—Muffett (2-8). Home run — Cleveland, de la Hoz (2).

Hot Stove Leagues

Two one-hit games were hurled in Hot Stove League action Friday as the Elks mowed down Youngstown Kitchens, 15-2 in Class F and, the Jaycees tripped Merchants Vending, 9-3 in Class H in two of the six games played.

In other encounters, Fisher News overwhelmed Salem Stamp, 18-8 in Class F; CIO 3372 edged CIO 3816, 6-4 and Greenford defeated Columbiana Enterprise, 9-1 in Class E; the Firemen bumped Hunt's Ind. Union, 11-1 in a Class G battle. In two other tilts scheduled Toar's Wrestlers forfeited to Home Furniture in Class H and the E. W. Bliss-Columbiana VFW game in Class E was postponed to a later date.

THE ELKS, BEHIND the pitching of J. Tolson and D. Miller, limited the Kitchens nine to a homerun by D. Plastow in the second frame that drove in both of the losers' runs.

The winners poured eight tallies across in the first frame and coasted to its victory.

Pacing the Elks win were S. Thomson and D. Portious, both with three hits in four trips to the plate. Tolson connected for a homerun in the second inning for the winners.

Tolson and Miller combined to fan 11 Kitchens batters while Plastow struck out nine Elks hitters. L. Morrison took the loss for Youngstown Kitchens.

Art Bowen went the distance for the Jaycees who copied their first win in five starts. Bowen gave up a single in the first inning to Tim Weingart and then went on to stop the Merchants Vending nine as he fanned 10 and did not give up a walk.

THE LOSERS TALLIED three runs in the first frame but the Jaycees pushed two over in the second and three in the third to take the win.

Berry Christen led the winners' attack with a double and a single. CIO 3372 jumped out to a 2-1 lead in the fourth inning and never fell behind as a triple by Dick Keeler and a double by Leslie Hardy powered the winners to victory.

Dave Capel received the loss for CIO 3816 but he fanned nine CIO 3372 batters. Don Kendrick captured the win for CIO 3372.

Paul Wukotich hammered out a triple to feature in the four-hit attack of CIO 3816.

The Firemen increased their lead in Class G to one and a half games as they romped to victory number seven against one loss.

The winners scored in every frame as they took a 4-1 lead in the first and steadily increased the margin.

POWER WAS the formula for victory in the Firemen attack. The winners blasted eight hits with four going for extra bases. Lou Markovich connected for a homer in the third inning; Bob Phillips, Power and Held singled for one run. Bell blooped a single to center, scoring another run. Then de la Hoz smacked his home run, the second round-tripper of the season for the young Cuban.

Two more runs crossed in the fifth on a walk to Willie Kirkland and singles by Phillips, Power and Held. Cleveland ended its scoring with a pair in the seventh. John Romano walked and moved up a base on Kirkland's single. Power doubled down the left field line, scoring Romano and sending Kirkland to third. Held's infield hit produced the 10th run.

Box Score on Miscues
The Red Sox spoiled Bell's shutout bid with a pair of unearned runs in the ninth frame, when de la Hoz committed two errors on a single play.

Arnie, Player Skip Rich Flint Open

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Minus Arnold Palmer and Gary Player, the wealthy Flint Open has become a scramble among those pro golfers used to chasing the two masters.

Of the 16 leaders — those bettering par-144 after two rounds — only two have been victors this year. Nobody in the top eight entering today's third round has been a 1961 champion.

There was a three-way jam-up in first place. Billy Casper, Dave Ragan, and Johnny Pott completed Friday's second round with 140s — four under par on the par-75 Warwick Hills course. Casper and Potts fired 68s, while Ragan had a 69.

Three more of this year's also-rans were one stroke behind at 141 — D on January, Al Balding and Lee Raymond. Tommy Aaron and Jackie Burke, other non-champions, had 142s.

Palmer and Player skipped the $53,000 Flint event to prepare for the British Open starting July 10. Cary Middlecoff and Doug Ford, tied with six others at 143, are the only Flint Open leaders holding 1961 championships. Middlecoff won the Memphis Open and Ford the "500" Festival.

Alliance, Old Dutch Win on Forfeits

Italian Club, Lincoln Machine Triumph In 'A'

League-leading Lincoln Machine trounced Bliss, 8-1 and the Italian Club erupted in the sixth inning for 15 runs to hand Theron's IGA a 21-5 beating in the only two Class A games played Friday at Kelley Park.

Two forfeits were called with the Alliance Amvets winning over Sheely Furniture & Appliance and Old Dutch receiving a victory from the Spartans.

LINCOLN MACHINE forged to its tenth win against three losses by breaking a 1-1 tie in the second inning as the winners pushed two tallies across to grab a 3-1 lead.

A two-run homer by Harrigan in the fourth frame powered the Lincoln nine to score five runs to turn the game into a rout. Stefane and Stanley lashed out singles for the winners in the inning. Stefane paced the Lincoln attack with two safeties.

Morrison was the big gun in the Bliss attack with two of the three hits that Lincoln hurler Guiler limited the losers to.

Theron's gave the Italian Club a good battle for the first five frames as they led 5-2 in the fourth but fell behind 6-5 in the fifth. The winners then lowered the boom on Theron's as they pushed 15 runs across the plate on six hits and seven walks.

THREE HOMERS in the inning by Bill DeFavero, P. Pasler and J. DeFavero, a triple by Ray Hertel and doubles by Hertel and M. Pasler powered the Italian Club to turn the encounter into a rout.

Pacing the winners' attack was Hertel, Foreman and P. Pasler with two hits apiece.

G. Carlisle and Bob Adams rapped out two hits each to show the way for Theron's.

Detroit Wins to Keep Lead; Ford Cops 14th

By The Associated Press
Whitely Ford gained his 14th victory with a five-hitter, and became the first American League left-hander ever to win eight games in one month, as the New York Yankees beat Washington 5-1 Friday night. That kept the Yanks within two games of the first place Detroit Tigers, who won 6-5 in 12 innings at Baltimore.

Third place Cleveland defeated Boston 10-2, Minnesota beat Kansas City 8-2 and the last place Los Angeles Angels walloped Chicago 10-3 for the White Sox' third straight loss after winning 12 in a row.

Mantle, Maris Pace Yanks
Ford (14-2), whose top winning year was 1956, when he had a 19-6 record, walked three and struck out eight, blanking the Senators after they scored an unearned run in the first inning. Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle drove in all of the Yankee runs. Mantle batted in two on an inside-the-park homer as New York came from behind in a three-run sixth inning against loser Dick Donovan (3-8).

The Tigers blew 4-0 and 5-4 leads before ending the Orioles' winning streak at five on a double by Steve Boros and a pinch single by Charley Maxwell off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm (6-3) in the 12th. Baltimore scored its five off starter Jim Bunning, collecting two on a fourth-inning home run by Gus Triandos. Terry Fox (3-0) was the winner.

McBride Stops Chisox
Ken Hunt, who walloped two home runs, and George Thomas each drove in three runs against the White Sox as the Angels won their third in a row. Winning right-hander Ken McBride (7-5) gave up five hits, one a homer by Jim Landis. Southpaw Billy Pierce (4-6) was the loser, getting slugged for five hits and four runs in three innings.

The Twins handed the A's their 12th defeat in 16 games by pairing a seven-run fourth inning with a five-hit pitching job by Jack Cozza farm, three miles south of Salem on Rt. 45.

Dodgers Regain 2nd; Cards Win

Bucs Edge Giants; Reds Blank Braves

Right-hander Joey Jay became a 10-game winner for the first time by pairing with reliever Bill Henry for an 11-hit shutout over his former Milwaukee mates Friday night as the Cincinnati Reds beat the Braves 4-0 and retained a 2 1/2 game lead in the National League race.

The Los Angeles Dodgers regained second place by beating Philadelphia 10-6 while Pittsburgh dropped San Francisco back to third with a 4-3 decision over the Giants. St. Louis checked the Chicago Cubs 11-4.

Reds Beat Spahn
The Reds, who began the season with a 21-57 record against Warren Spahn, beat the Braves' southpaw ace for the third time in three decisions this year. And it was a two-run single by Jay that wrapped up a three-run fifth inning against Spahn (8-9), who was trying for his 29th big league victory.

Jay (10-4), a loser in only one of his last 12 decisions, walked three and gave up all 11 Milwaukee hits. He struck out six. The Braves who had hit home runs in each of their last 10 games, left 11 runners stranded. Henry got the last out, retiring Ed Mathews with two men on base.

The third place Pirates, winning three in a row for the first time in more than a month, came from behind in the ninth against the Giants on an error by Willie McCovey and a two-run, two-out single by Bill Virdon. Roberto Clemente drove in the first two Buc runs off loser Mike McCormick (7-7) with a triple and a homer. Elroy Face (4-3) was the winner in relief, after giving up the Giants' go-ahead run in the top of the ninth.

Willie Mays doubled and scored twice for the Giants, coming across with the tying run in the seventh on Jim Davenport's ground out and counting again in the ninth on Davenport's sacrifice fly.

Davis Spencer Paces L.A.

Willie Davis belted a pair of triples and Daryl Spencer hit a clinching, two-run homer for the Dodgers as they built an 8-1 lead in 5 1/2 innings at Philadelphia. Stan Williams (7-7) was the winning pitcher, but needed relief from Dick Farrell when the Phils scored five runs in the sixth. Jim Owens (1-1) was the loser.

The Cardinals beat Jim Brewer (0-3) with a five-run first inning capped by rookie Jim Schaffer's first major league homer — a grand slam. Bob Lillis then lined a three-run double as the Cards got their other six in the eighth. Southpaw Ray Sadecki (7-4) was the winner, giving up the Cubs' runs on two-run homers by Jerry Kindall and Billy Williams.

Lisbon Social

Members of the T.O.C. Club of First Christian Church enjoyed an evening out Thursday with dinner at Morgan's Restaurant in Boardman, returning later to the home of Mrs. Orin Lewton in Columbiana for a social time. Mrs. George McCormick of Trenton, Mich., and Mrs. Carl Armstrong of Lisbon were guests.

Miss Esther Stackhouse, president, presided over a short business meeting.

A picnic was planned for July 18, with Mrs. Hazel Jamison and Miss Nellie Gillis in charge of arrangements.

A social time followed the regular meeting of the D of A Lodge Thursday night at its hall, with 500 games and social bingo as the entertainment.

Mrs. Helen Guy, Mrs. Mildred Hixcox, Mrs. Lela Stock and Mrs. Lydia Bennett won prizes.

Lunch was served by the June committee, and the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Ruth McKee, Mrs. Fannie Nicholson, Mrs. Agnes Gray, Mrs. Florence Stacey and Mrs. Hixcox were honored with gifts and birthday cake.

Next Thursday there will be installation of officers, and all taking part in the installation are asked to wear white.

MISS JOYCE ANN WELLS was honored Thursday when employees

Indemnity Concept Wrecks Cuban Prisoner Trade Deal

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Fidel Castro has been served notice that it is incompatible with the national interest of the United States to pay him an indemnity for damages caused by the April 17 invasion of Cuba.

Castro's insistence on reparations dashed all hopes of a negotiated release of 1,197 invasion prisoners.

John Hooker Jr., executive secretary of the disbanded Tractors for Freedom Committee, told 10 of Castro's prisoners here that "in the name of honor the committee feels it cannot send Dr. Castro tractors, money or credits for indemnity. Not $28 million or $28."

The Cuban prime minister offered on May 17 to exchange the prisoners for 500 heavy bulldozers. Later he said he would accept lighter tractors as an indemnity for invasion damages, provided their value was $28 million.

It was his insistence on indemnity that wrecked all hopes for a solution.

In declining to reconstitute itself in the wake of Castro's rejection of its final offer of 500 light tractors, the committee said through Hooker that:

"By thus changing the course
